

Live nutty. Just occasionally.
Just once in a while. And see what happens.
It brightens up the day.

DON'T GIVE "CENSUS TAKERS" YOUR CREDIT CARD NUMBER

Alaska Division of Libraries, Archives & Museums

A recent item on the Urban Legends Pages at <http://www.snopes.com/fraud/identity/census.asp> warns against scammers using the upcoming 2010 Census as a cover. These scammers may ask you for specific financial information such as credit card numbers or bank account numbers. A real Census worker will never ask for this kind of information. According to the Urban Legends Pages, real Census workers will have a badge, a handheld device, a Census Bureau canvas bag and a confidentiality notice. A sign of a phony Census worker is an e-mail contact. The real Census Bureau may contact you by phone, mail or a home visit. They do not e-mail.
