Fundraising Committee Report/Jodi Stack and Paulette Russell (co-chairs) were absent- Larry Mantei reported that the Boy Scouts are ready to set up for the Golden Days Hotdog Sale. He really appreciated the sign-up poster so that parishioners can help donate supplies. Dave Doudna reported that more prints are made and being signed by Joe Hruska and a small mold of the Processional Cross is being made.

Liturgy Committee- Shannon reported that $4,000 were donated by one person and $400 by another. They are getting new linens and banners with that money. Fr. Fred reported 3 Chalice are being re-plated with gold. Helen Cronce is making Easter frontals for the altars. Fr. Fred would like to see the sanctuary restored next.

New Business

Jack Tragis gave the 2013 budget report. Income was more than anticipated. Weekend collections were up. He would like to give the parishioners a report in September. Fundraisers didn't go well last year except Dinner with the Padres. Christmas cards were introduced too late in the season to be successful. Payroll expenses were reduced. Utilities were higher. We are locked into a contract with an undesirable copier company. We will pick a new company for that next time.

Annie Dobbs and Mary Robinson will co-chair the Harvest Festival. We hope to have it Sept. 23.
